WORMLAND successfully completes restructuring – PLUTA attorney Torsten Gutmann involved as insolvency monitor

30 August 2024 · Hanover, Germany · Business
Area: Insolvency Administration

The Insolvency Court of Hanover decided to terminate the debtor-in-possession proceedings on 31 August 2024. Accordingly, after eight months, the WORMLAND insolvency proceedings have been concluded with the implementation of the restructuring plan approved by the creditors' assembly. The company is now in sole charge of its affairs once again. Having been acquired by Osnabrück-based family business L&T, WORMLAND with its more than 300 employees across Germany has now successfully achieved a fresh start.

Attorney and business management expert Mr Torsten Gutmann from PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH has been overseeing the proceedings in his capacity as insolvency monitor appointed by the court. Mr Gutmann has been supported in the proceedings by attorney Ms Veronique Hoffmann and economist Mr Jürgen Schendel.

While operating the business as a debtor in possession, management at THEO WORMLAND GmbH has worked closely with an experienced team under restructuring experts Dr Jens-Sören Schröder and Mr Markus Lüdtké from Hamburg-based law firm JOHLKE.

Press Release

Mr Mark Rauschen, L&T managing partner, said, "We understand the importance of having a city centre retail presence that gets people excited with and for fashion. WORMLAND is a strong brand that showcases premium menswear in a sophisticated way and is synonymous with competent fashion advice provided by dedicated employees. This is an excellent basis for the future."

WORMLAND managing directors Mr Peter Wolff, Mr Bernd Sölter and Mr Tim Kälberer will continue to jointly lead the company: "The entire WORMLAND team is incredibly pleased that the company's survival has been secured. We can now fully focus again on what makes us special: men's fashion expertise, a superior customer experience, exceptional shop architectures and a wide range of brands, from newcomer to high-end fashion labels."
